

Website Questionnaire

Business name:

Current website (if you have one):

About your business

1. How long have you been in business, and what's the quick story? (Who started it, how it's grown, and what makes you different from the other guys, in your own words.)

2. Which towns or areas do you serve?

What the site should do

3. What do you want the website to do for you? (Bring more calls, look more professional, stop answering the same questions over and over, show up on Google, etc.)

4. Who are your best customers, and how do most of them find you today? (Homeowners, businesses, a certain town or type of job, word of mouth, Google, Facebook, truck signage, etc.)

Your services

5. List everything you offer, with your top 3 to 5 services in order. (These go front and center.)

6. Anything you're phasing out or don't want advertised? Any specials, discounts, or seasonal offers worth showing?

Your current site (skip this section if you don't have one)

7. What do you like and dislike about your current site? Is there anything on it that must be kept word-for-word?

Look, feel, and proof

8. Pick around 3 words for how the site should come across (professional, friendly, high-end, family-run, modern, established, no-nonsense, etc.), and how you talk with customers day to day.

9. Any websites you like the look of, and any colors you want or definitely don't want?

10. Your logo and colors: keep what you've got, or is this a fresh start?

11. What photos of your work do you have, and anything you'd want photographed that you don't have yet? (Before/after, finished jobs, your crew, your truck.)

12. Any reviews, testimonials, licenses, certifications, insurance, memberships, or awards worth showing off?

How customers reach you

13. When someone's ready to hire you, what should they do: call, text, fill out a form, book online? What's the best phone number, email, and hours to list, plus an emergency or after-hours line if you have one.

14. Should the site show your physical address, or just the areas you serve?

The details

15. What questions do customers always ask you? (Great FAQ material.)

16. Any policies the site should state (payment types, deposits, minimums, cancellation), or anything you don't want on the site at all?

17. Do you already own a domain name? Anything else on your mind, and the best way and time to reach you while we work on this together?
